

Please do not allow further consolidate media ownership any further. We need more competition, not less. Nobody has given a good reason for allowing greater consolidation other than the current rules are antiquated. That is not reason. How about what is good for the consumers. Competition is good for the consumers.